Mr. C Vasudeva Rao, Chikmagalur taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The present Ayurvedic College may be manned by English-knowing professors.

SUBJECT No. 686.

Appointment of native physicians in malnad hoblis.

Mr. H. Basavegowda, Manjarabad taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Owing to want of timely and suitable medical aid in the malnad, the people are put to a great deal of suffering and loss. To minimise these, it is prayed that competent vaidyas may be appointed, one for each hobli, in the malnad taluks where medical officers are not easily available.

SUBJECT No. 687.

The Sanitary department.

Mr. S. Venkatesaiya, Hassan District Agricultural and Industrial Association.

Summary of Representation.—The Government may be pleased to publish a summary of the progress made in the formation of the Sanitary department; also of the work achieved by it since its formation.

SUBJECT No. 688.

Urban and rural sanitation.

Messrs. H.V. Rangaswami, Hassan taluk, Mohamed Raza and S. Ramanna, Hassan municipality, and C. Srinivasa Rao, Chikmagalur taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Having regard to the high percentage of mortality and also to the low average age of persons who die, it is respectfully submitted that some definite scheme be adopted to improve the urban and rural sanitation.

SUBJECT No. 689.

A monthly journal on matters of hygiene and sanitation in Kannada.

Messrs. A. Narasimha Iyengar, H Madhava Rao, Yagavyana Krishnappa, and Rattehalli Puttappa, Sagar taluk.

Summary of Representation.—The Sanitary department may be directed to publish in Kannada a monthly journal on matters of hygiene and sanitation to popularise useful knowledge on these subjects.

SUBJECT No. 691.

Suitable sites for camping during the outbreak of epidemics.

Mr. Nadig Bheema Rao, Channagiri taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Suitable sites may be set apart permanently in each village to enable the inhabitants thereof to camp out easily at the first sign of the outbreak of epidemics.

MUZRAI.

(Nos. 692-704.)

SUBJECT No. 692.

Management of Muzrai institutions.

Mr. Nadig Bhaskar Rao, Shimoga District Board.

Summary of Representation.—The inam lands endowed to temples are not being used in many cases for the purpose for which they were originally set apart. The services in the temples are not being properly done and several temples are in disrepair. Only a few temples are under the direct management of Government. It is necessary in the interests of the institutions concerned to take all temples endowed with inams under the direct management of Government, and to resume the devadaya inam lands that have been alienated. The financial condition of the temples should be placed on a satisfactory basis and their income and expenditure accounted for regularly.

SUBJECT No. 693.

Religious institutions not under Muzrai department.

(1) Mr. Nadig Bheema Rao, Channagiri taluk.

(2) Messrs. Venkatasubbannachar, Thammayyabhatta, Agumbi Rama Rao, and Devangi Ramanna Gowda, Tirthahalli taluk.

Summary of Representation.—(1) There are several institutions in the State which are not under the direct management of the Muzrai department. Some of these institutions are endowed with inam lands. No sort of control exists at present regarding the income and expenditure of these institutions and there is considerable scope for misuses of their income. It is prayed that two Inspectors may be appointed for each district to place minor institutions of this kind on a sound basis. Dharmadarsis may be appointed for institutions having large incomes, and all religious institutions, subjected to the control of Government Officers.

(2) Temples, chattrams and other charitable institutions which are not under the management of Government in the Muzrai department may be brought under the management of Panchayets.

SUBJECT No. 694.

Supervision of annachattrams.

Messrs M. Chowdaiya, Dasappa and Hariyanna, Arsikere taluk.

Summary of Representation.—With a view to satisfy that the padithara charges granted to annachattrams are properly utilized, it is prayed that arrangements may be made to supervise these institutions.

SUBJECT No. 695.

Scholarships to Sanskrit students.

Mr. Gundappa, Mysore District Board.

Summary of Representation.—There are matts having liberal grants from Government to feed the poor, to impart Sanskrit education, etc., but these objects are not at all fulfilled at present. Requests therefore that Government may arrange in consultation with Mathadhipathies, to set apart a portion of the grant for giving scholarships to students studying Sanskrit.

SUBJECT No. 696.

Opening of Vedic schools.

Mr. Boregowda, Yedatore taluk.

Summary of Representation.—It has been the policy of the Rulers of this State to encourage the study of Vedas and Shastras. During the jatras in the various temples of the State a large amount of money is collected by means of taxes. This amount may be utilized to open schools in these temples for the study of Vedas and Shastras.

SUBJECT No. 697.

Feeding poor students.

Mr Gundappa, Mysore District Board.

Summary of Representation.—There are chattrams in taluk headquarters, where feeding is not properly conducted. There are several boys in villages who cannot prosecute their studies in taluk schools for want of boarding. It is therefore prayed that a fixed number of such poor students may be fed in such chattrams.

SUBJECT No. 698.

Education of indigent scholars from muzrai funds.

Mr. V. Raghavachar, Pavagada taluk.

Summary of Representation.—Brahmin travellers are fed indiscriminately in Government chattrams maintained in taluks. Out of the amount thus spent, a certain portion
